Magazine Meet & Greet Icebreaker Game

Try this fun icebreaker group game using magazines to help your travelers get to know each other.

Instructions:

Take some old magazines or cheap supermarket magazines and cut out half as many ads as there are people on the trip from these.

Cut each of these ads in half and mix them up.

When you're ready to play the icebreaker with your group, hand each traveler one half of an ad.

Each person needs to search for who has the other half of the ad.

Prizes can be awarded to the first five who find their other half.
