

Remember When TV Quiz- Answer Key

See how many of these old TV shows you can guess correctly. You'll have to think far back in time for some of these!

1. "Freddie the Freeloader" and "Clem the Kadiddlehopper" were two of this comedian's characters
Red Skelton
2. A famous director, whose silhouette announced the show delivered a short monologue at the end explaining how the villains got what they deserved.
Alfred Hitchcock
3. If you opened your front door one day and there stood Michael Anthony, would you (a) call the police, (b) call your lawyer, or (c) call your banker.
Call your banker
4. Name the TV show from number three.
The Millionaire
5. This gunslinger quoted Shakespeare, sometimes wore all black and his business card featured the white knight of a chess game.
Paladin
6. His kids were the first to say the darndest things.
Art Linkletter
7. Margaret Anderson's husband knew best. Name the show.
Father Knows Best
8. This guy was to scuba what Ester Williams was to the sidestroke.
Lloyd Bridges
9. Name his show from number eight.
Sea Hunt
10. In what show did William Tell's Overture take you back to "those thrilling days of yesteryear?"
The Lone Ranger

